PROTECTIVE ORDER RE: IMPLEMENTATION OF COLLABORATIVE AGREEMENT

11/06/2003 11:10:51

This Protective Order shall govern the parties during implementation of the collaborative Agreement

It is hereby ORDERED that all drafts of any monitor reports pursuant to para 107 of the Collaborative Agreement and para 107 of the Memorandum of Agreement and any responses to such drafts or other documents related to said drafts, whether authored by the Monitor or by the parties, or by the United States Department of Justice, shall be deemed confidential and may not be released by any person receiving said document except pursuant to this order. Such documents shall be shared only with counsel, their staff, and selected representatives of each party as determined by counsel. All those receiving documents covered by this Order shall be instructed as to the contents of this order, shall sign a copy of Exhibit A attached to this Order and shall be obligated to follow the terms of this Order, provided, however, that counsel shall not be required to sign a copy of Exhibit A.

The term "parties" as used in this order shall include, the leadership of the American Civil Liberties Union of Ohio (ACLU), including the Advisory Panel appointed by the ACLU
